Obituary

Emma Butler was born June 8, 1921 in Bucksport, South Carolina. She was one of thirteen children born to Richard and Daisy Brown. At an early age, she received Christ Jesus as her personal saviour at Oak Grove Baptist Church in Bucksport, South Carolina.

In moving to New York City in 1939 with her mother, she became a member of Mount Moriah Baptist Church. She met and married Arthur Mack in 1945, with this union they had a son, Joseph Mack, she then joined Mount Nebo Baptist Church. In 1953, she became a faithful member of Prince of Peace Baptist Church which she and her husband, Arthur Mack found. She served as a dedicated deaconess and missionary worker. She also served on the sick committee where she visited the sick and shut-in no matter who they were.

Emma departed this life on Saturday, July 2, 2011 at 12:44 p.m. and leaves to cherish fond memories: her loving son, Joseph and his wife, Debra; two granddaughters, Danielle and Adrian Mack; five great grandchildren, Darryl Gathers, Symone, Dasani, Danashia and Darlene Mack; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends. Emma leaves her family with wonderful memories. She would want me to thank these families and long time companion, Dan Smith, Carrie Mungo, The Legreer family, The Lusskin family, The English family and Beatrice and her family for their years of friendship and love.

We will all miss Emma dearly, but we will remember her joy and laughter in our hearts.

Done in love and memory,
The Family

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
