Obituary

Florence M. James was born October 21, 1925 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Abraham and Bernice Williams. On Monday, 11, 2011, she departed this life quietly into eternal rest.

Florence was the youngest and only girl of six children born to that union. As a child she attended Monmouth St. School and then went on to attend South Side High School. After completing high school, Florence decided to continue her education by attending a Nursing School in Newark.

In 1954, Florence married Malloy I. James, and from that union two children were born, Melvin I. and Mevin D. Florence worked at various companies over the years, including Western Electric, before pursuing a position as a Nurse's Aide at the Crippled Children's Hospital, a branch of United Hospitals, in Newark, New Jersey, from which she retired after a twenty years career.

In her spare time, Florence enjoyed word puzzles and watching different variety shows on TV such as Sunday's Best and Music Awards shows. She loved to laugh and watched comedy sitcoms, as well. Florence also enjoyed traveling and attending Broadway plays.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Malloy I. James; one brother, Robert Wilson; one sister-in-law, Ruth James; two granddaughters; one grandson; a great grandson; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane.
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to love you
No one can ever know
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.*
