Obituary

Gale Yvonne Williams was born to Lula Mae and Eddie B. Williams in New York City on July 30, 1949. She was raised by her mother at 131 West 110th Street in Manhattan.

Gale attended Kings Borough Community College where she earned an Associates Degree in Business Administration. After graduation, she began her professional career with Bristol Myers-Squibb. With more than twenty-five years of experience in Human Resources at Bristol-Myers and other companies, she joined the Colgate Company in 2006 as Staffing Administrator in Global Human Resources until her death.

Gale loved life and her family. She was fiercely loyal to them. Although she was stricken with cancer at an early age, she refused to let her illness define her, she always remained optimistic. Gale would do anything to help her family and friends. She supported those in need whenever she could, even though she may not have been having the best of days physically. Gale touched many lives, she formed deep and lasting relationships. She was most proud of the accomplishments of her nieces.

Gale Yvonne Williams left us on July 20, 2011. She leaves behind: her mother, Lula Williams; brother, Ed Williams; sisters, Demetra Thompson and Andrea Williams Wright; nieces, Dawn Hazelhurst Palmer, Remi DeLleguas, Britt, Layla and Tiffanae Williams; her six great nieces and nephews to forever cherish her memory.

Dearest Gale be at peace.

A Heart Of Gold

*A heart of gold stopped beating,
Two shining eyes at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best,
God knows you had to leave us,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day He took you home.
To some you will be forgotten,
To others, just part of the past,
But to us who loved and lost you,
Your memory will always last.*
