Obituary

Hazel Vines was born December 12, 1921 to Willie and Sadie Parker. She was raised and educated in New York City.

She was a devout and upright member of the Union Baptist Church in New York City while the church was under the leadership of Reverend Sims, and served on the usher board there.

In her younger years, during the second World War, Hazel served her country as a welder in an airplane assembly plant in Hoboken, New Jersey.

She later was in the entertainment field as a singer with such renowned artists as Red Prysock, The Litrose Band, and also the Sedrick Wallace Band.

She was later married to Teardis Vines and was employed by the City of New York Board of Education, wherein after time she retired.

She leaves to mourn: her beloved son, Theadore Vance; her brothers-in-law, Lafayette Vines and Walter Vines; nieces, Phyllis, Diane, Joyce and Loretta; nephew, Ronald; two dear neighbors, Linda and Elaine who took care of Hazel so she was grateful and thanked them.

So rest in peace, we will miss you. But God loved you best so He came and took you home.

This Old World

*This old world
I'll see no more*

*Pain and suffering for me
Is out the door*

*Oh, what a journey this will be
Knowing my Father in heaven is walking with me.*

*Don't be afraid
I'll be alright
I'm cradled in Jesus' arms
He's holding me tight*

*I needed this rest
Only God knows best
For those I've left behind
Don't worry, I'm fine,
Victory is mine.*
