Obituary

Clarence J. Lewis (Leader) was born on August 23, 1930 in New York City to the late Christina Keith and James Lewis, Sr.

He attended Seward Park High School. In his youth, he played three musical instruments; the violin, piano and clarinet. He was a gifted violinist.

He enjoyed spending his summers with his brothers the late Wilfred A. Lewis and the late Timothy L. Stewart at their maternal grandparents, James Keith and Ellen L. Keith's home on Pawleys Island, South Carolina. He spent many hours telling his younger siblings, Keith and Katlynn about their grandparents.

He worked as a Chauffeur and for the Amsterdam News. He enjoyed reading, completing the jumble puzzle, watching National Geographic, the History Channel, the Mystery Theater and his VHS' and DVD's.

He loved his son, his sister, his first cousins and their children, his nieces and nephews and friends. He was a guide and protector for all.

He leaves to mourn: one son, Joseph C. Lewis; one sister, Katlynn Stewart; first cousins, Sadie and Robert Ball and their children, Dorothy Win, Mary Grate and Glenn Grate; nieces, Sheila Broome, Christine Stewart and Brandi Bradshaw; nephews, Toby Stewart, Keith C. Lewis and Duwayne T. Stewart; and a host of other relatives and friends.

I've Changed My Address

*I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here, for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place where you'll find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
and from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place to find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore. For the Lord built a mansion and my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
for where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.*
