Obituary

Ruby F. Jackson, daughter of the late Lila Ruth Jackson and the late Johnny Green was born on February 4, 1952 in Whiteville, North Carolina. Ruby was the only girl of four siblings; the late Lee Grand Jackson; the late William Jackson and Albert Jackson.

Ruby received her formal education at Washington Irving High School in New York City. Ruby worked over ten years as a Lieutenant for Aargo Services until she became disabled. Ruby was a hard working, strong, independent, loving and giving woman. Ruby was dedicated to caring for her daughter and grandson. Ruby was also a very outspoken, opinionated, strong minded and optimistic woman. Ruby enjoyed the precious time she had with her family. The seed she planted and nurtured will continue to grow strong and beautiful until the end of time. Ruby is definitely the Rose that grew from concrete who will be greatly missed.

Ruby's faith in God and our Savior Jesus Christ guided her through any trial and tribulations she endured in her life. Ruby would want you to rejoice in her homecoming. Fret no more because I'm at peace. God has accepted me with open arms.

Ruby leaves to cherish her memories: one daughter, Valencia Jackson; one grandson, Saquan Lee Grande Jackson; one brother, Albert Jackson; and a host of other family members and friends.

Dear Ma,

Words can't explain the way I feel about you. The times we spent, the love we shared can never be replaced. You are one of a kind. Mother you are an exceptional, extraordinary, loving and caring woman. You gave me all the love that I needed. You believed in me when I didn't believe in myself. You were always there to uplift me when I needed it. You cherished and loved your only baby girl. Ma you are the realist woman I know besides myself. Through the years we realized we were so much alike. I will always cherish the times we spent listening to music and just hanging out. Ma I'm going to miss our 4hr conversations on the phone when you had to tell me to hang up because you were tired. Most children have to tell their parents that. Ma I will continue to be the strong independent woman you taught me to be. Ma you are and will always be my best friend. That's why I don't know how to let go. I do know that you are in a better place, pain & worry free. Knowing this helps ease my pain. Ma you are finally free from suffering. May God spread your wings and fly away to paradise. I will always miss and love you very much. It's so comforting to know that God has welcomed a special angel into his Kingdom. I know that you are safely home with God and Our Savior Jesus Christ. Till we Meet Again you will always be in my heart forever.

REST IN PEACE MA.

Love You Always,
Your daughter, Valencia a.k.a. Tinker Bell
