“Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service”

Kason Akir Gregory Wilson was born on February 26, 1987 in Newark, New Jersey, the son of the late Trina M. Wilson and Gregory Kelsey. He was raised by his dear grandmother, Mrs. Eula Kelsey from the age of seven months.

Kason attended the Linden Public School System. He was very athletic and enjoyed playing basketball where he participated on the Linden Basketball traveling team “The Flame” and led them to the state championship in Orlando, Florida.

Kason was employed at Impact Temp Agency in Elizabeth as a Forklift Operator.

He was a loving, sweet, caring person. He loved his family and would do anything for them if he could.

He was predeceased by his uncles, Zachary, Robert, Kenny and Christopher Kelsey. Kason departed this life on Sunday, August 21, 2011. For his family and loved ones, his life was too short, but we know that Earth has no sorrows that heaven can not heal.

Kason leaves to cherish fond memories: his daughter, Keyari A. Wilson; his grandmother, Mrs. Eula Kelsey; brother, Tamir Wilson; sister, Ebony S. Kelsey; his companion, Nia Parker; father-in-law and mother-in-law, Rev. Gregory and Sikandrah Parker; brother-in-law, Gregory Darius Parker; five aunts, Gail Hawkins (Gene), Cynthia Mosley (Charles), Michelle Kelsey, Jacqueline Hollished (Richard) and Stephanae Jeter; four uncles, Gary (Edith), Tony, Gerard and Scottie Kelsey; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

*I'll lend you for a little time,
a child of mine, he said.
For you to love while he lives,
and mourn when he is dead.
It may be six or seven years,
or twenty-two or three.
But will you, till I call him back,
take care of him for me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden
you, and shall his stay be brief.
You'll have his lovely memories
as solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay,
since all from earth return.
But there are lessons taught down
there I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true*

And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes, I have selected you.
Now will you give him all your love,
nor think the labor vain,
Nor hate me when I come to call,
to take him back again?
I fancied that I heard them say,
Dear Lord, Thy will be done.
For all the joy Thy child shall bring,
the risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness,
we'll love him while we may;
And for the happiness we've known,
will ever grateful stay.
But shall the angels call for him
much sooner than we planned.
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes, and try to understand.
