Obituary

Rannie Ramlall was born in Wakenam, Guyana, South America to her parents Ramchandarlall Ramlall (Father) and Rajo Ramlall (mother) on March 28, 1932. She was the eight child out of ten children. She attended Wakeanam Elementary School and was a very loving and caring child. Later in life as Rannie blossomed into a beautiful young lady she was betrothed to her sweetheart Kaiser Sookram. The couple moved to Vergenoegen, East Bank Essequibo to begin their new life together. Rannie and her husband Kaiser bought land and constructed a house on their own, Rannie being "in charge" of course. The marriage gave birth to their first child Meena in 1953 and seven more wonderful children. Rannie was a very loving wife and caring mother to all her children. However her devotion did not stop there, she was a very devoted Christian woman and loved the Lord Jesus with all her heart. Her prayer life was extensive and touched many people especially those in her family. She was known by many in the church and even in the community as mother Rannie because everyone was her son or daughter in her eyes but to her closest loved ones she was just Ma or Didi.

Rannie, after many years in Guyana and the death of her husband came to the United States in the fall of 1993. There she was grandma to her new born granddaughter Kathy, as well as Andrew and Cameel. But that would be selling her short, she was grandma to countless other children whose lives she has touched due to her babysitting business. Rannie's work ethic made it impossible for her to sit still, she was the happiest when she was working or busy. The earnings that she accumulated did not even go to benefit her, she would save it to send to her family that is still in Guyana. She was a blessing to all those she met whether it was in church or just someone walking on the street, she was always cheerful. Rannie was an amazing person whose loving and caring spirit brightened up the world. She would give her last penny for the benefit of her family and her God. It is this dedication and caring spirit that we, who are left behind must thrive to achieve, it is what Rannie would have wanted.

Farther Along

Tempted and tried we're oft made to wonder Why it should be thus all the day long; While there are other living about us Never molested, though in the wrong

Refrain:

Farther along we'll know more about it, Farther along we'll understand why; Cheer up my brother, live in the sunshine We'll understand it all by and by.

Sometimes I wonder why I must suffer, Go in the rain, the cold and the snow When there are many living and comfort, Giving no heed to all I can do. Tempted and tried, how often we question Why we must suffer year after year, Being accused by those of our loved ones, E'en though we've walked in God's Holy fear.

Often when death has taken our Loved ones,
Leaving our homes so lone and so drear'
Then we do wonder why others prosper, Living so wicked year after year.

"Faithful till death" saith our loving master, Short is our time to labor and wait; Then will our toiling seem to be nothing, When we shall pass the heavenly gate.

Soon we will see our dear loving Savior,
Hear the last trumpet sound through the sky;
Then we will meet those gone before us,
Then we shall know and understand why.

In the Sweet By and By

There's a land that is fairer than day And by Faith we can see it afar; For the Father awaits over the way To prepare us a dwelling place there.

Refrain:

In the sweet by and by We shall meet on that beautiful shore (2x)

We shall sing on that beautiful shore. The melodious songs of the blessed; And our spirits shall sorrow no more; Not a sigh for the blessing of rest

To our bountiful Father above,
We will offer our tribute of praise For the glorious gift of his love And the blessings that hallow our days

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
