“God is in Charge”

Enese Walker (Inez) went home to be with the Lord on September 9, 2011. She passed away at Brooksdale Hospital after a long illness. She was born in Manhattan, NY on August 14, 1939 to the late Ashton and late Hester Walker. Inez had two sisters and a brother (pre-deceased) - Iris, Beatrice and Ashton.

She attended P.S. 90, Jr. High School 136 and the High School of Design in mid-town Manhattan. Later in her life, she attended the Fashion Institute of Technology to keep abreast of her interests and skills in design and fashion.

Enese later met and married Gary Bowen and they moved to Brooklyn, NY. Two sons were conceived from their marriage Darryl Bowen and Dana Bowen. She worked as a School Safety Officer for twenty-five years in Brooklyn, NY. School Safety is a division of NYPD. She also loved to skate, sew and she often did volunteer work to help senior citizens.

She is survived by: her sons (Darryl, Dana), sister (Cleo), grandson (Darryl Jr.), daughter-in-law (Catherine), Cliff (brother-in-law) and aunts, uncles; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free
I am following the path God has laid you see
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life has been full
I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and peace to thee
God wanted me now;
He set me free

Acknowledgement
