Vera Was Her Name...

It seems like yesterday, we was just taking on the phone but who would have known God would soon call you HOME just last Thanksgiving Day we all sat around, joked and played. How just before that you ate some good cupcakes on Dee and I wedding day... Thinking of the time you lost your voice and Gregory Deshawn Andrews had it imitated to a "T". It was all in fun because you still remained our favorite auntie... Oh how we remember your children, Fe, Nell, Mister, Luke and lets not forget the "Ms. Beyonce" NeNe for she was delivered outside Aunt

Nana's bedroom door and cried forever more... (IF I REMEMBER RIGHT... BUT THAT'S ALRIGHT) Let's not forget the scrabble games on any given Sunday, with a plate of pork chops and some graaavvvy desert was next... Chocolate ice cream was your fav and those magnets better had stayed on the fridge that is... because you know No One messed with them frogs Aunt T ain't play... Mac and cheese, sweet potato pies you put your foot in that auntie... Oh lets not forget the meal that some might not eat...But... Fatback, corn, rice and stewed tomatoes

MMMMmm. EVERYONE knew your favorite song was "He Reigns Forever"... and guess what Auntie you will FOREVER REIGN IN OUR HEARTS... Your pain is now over. But you was so young and fly. Aunt T and Nana were the original DIVAS of the

Robinson Fam, we all just followed suit because WE ARE THEIR #1 BIGGEST FANS!!! Gone home to be with your sister and father too... Please send blessings to us because we will FOREVER MISS YOU... Vera was her name and a PHENOMENAL WOMAN SHE WILL ALWAYS REMAIN... WE ALL LOVE YOU AUNTIE AND THAT WILL NEVER CHANGE...

Love you always

Your Niece, Sheri' "Rita" Andrews
