Obituary

Joyce Dowdell Judd departed this life on September 11, 2011. She was one of five children born to Shelly Dowdell and Lillie Mack Dowdell of Hartford, CT.

She is survived by: her son, Gerald Roger Judd; two sisters, Mrs. Ora Steele of Hartford, CT and Ms. Ethel Dowdell of New York City; niece, Paula Devonish of Springfield, MA; grandson, Gerald Judd; and a host of grand nieces.

She graduated from Hartford Public High School.

Joyce Judd was married to George Judd of New York City in Hartford, CT in September of 1942.

During the early 1950's, she was baptized at Refuge Temple and received The Gift of the Holy Ghost. She then joined the Radio Choir, in recent years, she sang in the Memorial Choir. She faithfully attended noonday prayer service and the Potter's House until a recent decline in her health. However weak, her faith in God was strong as she ministered to and counseled many by telephone daily.

Most will remember her devotional songs, "Just When I Need Him Most", "There's A Bright Side Somewhere" and many others. Her suffering is over and she is gone on to be with the Lord.

Trust Him

*Trust Him when dark doubts assail thee
Trust Him when thy strength is small,
Trust Him when to simply trust Him
Seems the hardest thing of all.
Trust Him, He is ever faithful;
Trust Him, for His will is best;
Trust Him, for the Heart of Jesus
Is the only place of rest.
Trust Him then, through doubts and sunshine.
All thy cares upon Him cast,
Till the storm of life is over and the trusting days are past.*
