Obituary

Henry Sherman was born September 12, 1955 to Gloria Grant and Eric Sherman. He was born in Santa Cruz, Jamaica, West Indies.

While growing up, he attended Santa Cruz All Age School. After that, Henry continued his education by attending evening classes at St. Elizabeth Technical High School. When Henry's education was finished, he pursued a career as a police officer on Jamaica Constabulary Force, where he proudly served for thirteen years. After this, he migrated to Delaware where he worked as a Chef for an exclusive country club. Henry eventually settled in Queens, New York and worked for Midtown Express Time Warner Cable Company for over ten years.

Henry enjoyed his life. He loved soccer, music and traveling to different countries like Amsterdam, Malaysia, and Germany. Some of his hobbies were taking pictures of everyone and everything. He always was there for both family members and friends. He will be truly missed.

Henry leaves behind: two sons, Henry Sherman, Jr. and RoxRoy Sherman; two daughters, Janene Sherman Beckford and Kemisha Sherman; six grandchildren Sapphire, David, Daniel, Steven , Noel and Nathaniel; as well as nine brothers, seven sisters and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
