Reflections of Life

Patricia Marvel Williams was born on March 14, 1951. She was one of five children born to the late Thelma Bowen and James Griffin, Jr.

Patricia was a resident of Manhattan, NY. Patricia loved listening to music, reading and working on her computer.

Several years ago, Patricia accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. She was a warm quiet person who touched the lives of many with her beautiful smile, kindness and enormous, caring heart.

After a courageous battle with stroke related issues, Patricia passed away peacefully at her home in Wise Towers. Prior to becoming ill, she worked for Verizon and attended college as a psychology major.

She was a devoted wife to the late John W. Williams. Her siblings Charles and Calvin Griffin also preceded her in death.

She will be remembered by: her loving sister, Tina; loving brother, Ernest; beloved children, Russell, Jamarr and Sherema; treasured grandchildren, Sharron, Ty-che, Jamari, Tristan and Russell, Jr.; along with countless other family members and friends whom were blessed to know her.

A Mother's Love

A mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may
For nothing can destroy it or take that love away....

It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking....
It believes beyond believing when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems....

It is far beyond defining, it defies all explanation,
And it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation....
A many splendid miracle man cannot understand
And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.

Home At Last

Although we may never be able to reach out and touch your hand,
I sincerely hope that many can understand
On September 3, 2011 an Angel came and called you by name.
He said to you, your mansion was ready,
Which is far above
And that the time has come for you to leave behind all those you dearly love
To those who are able to see
This place called Eternity
Where God the Father sits on His throne
And you my sister are now at home.
No more pain, no more tears
You're in a place where there's nothing to fear.

~ Your loving Sister, Tina ~

I Needed The Quiet

I needed the quiet so He drew me aside,
Into the shadows where we could confide.
Away from the bustle where all the day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.
I needed the quiet tho' at first I rebelled
But gently, so gently, my cross He upheld.
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things
Tho' weakened in body, my spirit took wings
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay.
He loved me so greatly, He drew me away.
I needed the quiet. No prison, my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead -
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.
I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside.
