Rennal Lloyd Walker, Sr.
“Babba”

This is in loving memory of our dear Father, Brother and Grandfather Rennal Lloyd Walker Sr. The sixth of twelve children from Ruth and George Walker. Babba was born April 6, 1941 and raised in the town of Madras, in the parish of St. Ann, Jamaica. Babba was one of the best farmers in Madras. His determination and perseverance awarded him a visa to the United States to work as a farmer.

In 1969, he migrated to the United States and lived in the Bronx where he worked in Construction to support his family and children in Jamaica. In 1979, he moved from Brooklyn to Queens where he helped raise and support numerous family members from the Burrell-Hall and Walker families.

Rennal was a hard working father and friend who would go out his way to help anybody he knew. He could be strict at times and tell you to “go bout your business,” but that never stopped him from caring for his family and friends. He was a very generous man, just ask the New York State Lottery Commission.

In 1993, Babba got his dream job with the City of New York working for the Housing Authority as a Mason. In 2003, he finally retired and decided to stay put in New York, but his heart was in Jamaica. 186-21 Baisley Blvd. will not be the same with out Babba and he will surely will be missed.

Rennal Walker Sr. was survived by and will be missed by: his twelve siblings, Sil, Amy, Mas Les, Dear, Shorty, Joyce, Pinky, Teddy Man, Busha, Limbey and George Jr.; his six children, Kennedy, Karlene, Winston, Olga, Rennal Jr. and Nadean. He will also will be mourned by sixteen grandchildren. Babba will be greeted by his parents and siblings Sil, Mas Les, Joyce, and Limbey.

Babba showed strength until the end. Let’s just remember everything that he shared with us as good times and let’s be happy that he’s finally gone home to our Creator.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.
