Obituary

Chester “Chet” McNair was born on June 28, 1950, in Passaic, New Jersey. He was the son of the late Clio McNair and Virginia Black.

Chester graduated from Passaic High School, and resided in Passaic most of his life before moving to Newark, NJ seven years ago. He worked as a Chemical Operator for Diamond Chemical Company of East Rutherford for fifteen years. He was member of The U.S. Air Force for four years and former member of V.F.W. Post 10117 of Passaic, NJ.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving companion, Barbara Glover of Newark, NJ; two sons, Donnell and Algnon Washington; his two brothers, Donald McNair of Passaic, NJ, and Morris McNair of Carteret, NJ; his sister, Annabelle McNair of Clifton, NJ; his four step-children, Maurice Oates, Shalonda, Kendall and Jeffrey Glover all of Newark, NJ; sixteen grandchildren; and one great grand.

He was predeceased by his former wife, Evelyn Washington, one brother, William McNair and one sister, Dorothy Douglas.

A Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday*
