The Obituary of Roman Thompson

Roman Thompson was born the first son in a family of five to Daniel Thompson and Leanora Francis. He was born on December 20th, in the year of 1917 on the beautiful island of Jamaica, West Indies, in the quiet mountain of St. Andrew. He attended Oberlin High School in Aboverocks and showed tremendous inclination for the culinary arts.

After graduation, he was employed by the Courtleigh Manor Hotel one of the most prestigious hotels in Jamaica, West Indies. He served for many years designing and providing many exotic Caribbean cuisines especially for visitors to our island which kept them coming back for more. His work contributed significantly to the development of our island tourist industry.

Mass Roman was destined to go the path of faith as can be seen by the simple fact that he was named Roman which is one of the books of the New Testament scripture. Please keep in mind that his father, who was named Daniel, was a prophet of the Old Testament. Roman was converted to Christianity in the 1950's and married his beautiful wife, Daphne in the Church of God 7th day, where they both served as Deacon and Organist for many years. Roman was a man who lived a remarkable life of prayer and won many victories for the side of God while keeping his family and church in constant protection.

Roman Thompson migrated to the United States of America in 1980 continuing his devotional life with his wife as Deacon and Organist in the Church of God 7th Day, Apostolic. This is where he served until his time of passing. Mass Roman or Sir as he was affectionately called worked at one of the finest supermarket chains in the United States as a clerk until his retirement. He became a citizen of this great country in the year 2000 and after several years of health concerns he passed away to the next world where he will not only meet his Savior Jesus Christ but also his eternal partner and beautiful wife, Daphne who transitioned twelve years ago.

He is survived by: a younger brother and sister, Lloyd and Violet; six children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. His life will always be remembered by friends and church family.

Farther Along

Tempted and tried, we're oft made to wonder
Why it should be thus all the day long;
While there are others living about us,
Never molested, though in the wrong.

Refrain:

Farther along we'll know more about it.
Farther along we'll understand why;
Cheer up my brother live in the sunshine
We'll understand it all by and by.

When death has come and taken our loved ones
It leaves our home so lonely and drear;
Then do we wonder how others prosper
Living so wicked year after year.

"Faithful 'til death", saith our loving Master,
A few more days to labor and wait;
Toils of the road will then seem as nothing,
As we sweep through the beautiful gate.

Home of The Soul

If for the prize we have striven
After our labors are o'er
Rest to our souls will be given
On the eternal shore

Refrain:

Home of the soul
Blessed kingdom of light
Free from all cares
Where there falleth no night

Oft in the storm
We are sighing for thee
Beautiful home of the ransomed beside.
The crystal sea.

Yes, a sweet rest is remaining
For the true children of God
Where there will be no complaining
Never a chast'ning rod

Soon, the bright homeland adoring
We shall behold the glad dawn
Lean on the Lord till the morning
Trust till the night is gone
