Obituary

Marcia Rhynie was born on November 7, 1982 in Bronx, New York to Noel and Joyce Rhynie. On Saturday, October 22, 2011, Marcia was called home to be with the Lord.

She attended St. Jerome School and graduated from Aquinas High School in Bronx, New York. Marcia later attended Dowling College in Long Island where she studied medicine. She enjoyed music, dancing, shopping and had a passion for writing. Marcia had a smile that would light up a room. She never met a stranger and kept great friends in her company. Even during her illness, she never cried and kept that beautiful smile. She will be missed, but we will take comfort in knowing that she is in no more pain, and we will always have her beautiful smile and spirit in our hearts.

Marcia will be missed by: her dad, Noel Rhynie; sisters, Tracey Walters, Lavern Rhynie and Suzzette Rhynie; nieces, Tasheena Cherry, Shannel Walters and Sicole Walters; one grand-niece, Kaloni Cherry; along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives; and a lot of special friends.

Our Hearts Are Broken Forever

MARCIA our hearts are broken forever,
People tell us that in time the pieces
will eventually come back together,
If this is true, though hard to believe now, there will always be a space,
The piece to which has your name on its place.
Tears have been falling now for so long,
When we think of your beautiful face it all seems so wrong
You had so much to look forward to and so much left to do But God needed somebody in heaven
who is as special as you.

Nothing is the same now and we doubt it ever will be
You have been released from pain and suffering, you have been set free.
Your story has touched people, all ages, near and afar
On the night you were taken from us, in the sky was a lone twinkling star.

Was that you to tell us that you had reached home now?
And from life as we knew it, it was time for you to take your final bow.
We miss your voice, your infectious laugh and hearing you sing.
Fashion you loved and now you have new accessories a pair of Angel's wings.
The world has lost a wonderful girl, a true and amazing friend.
But maybe her goodness was needed to help and from heaven she needed to send.

MARCIA you are always around us, engulfing us with your love
Giving us strength, keeping us close and watching over us from above.

-Grace Bourke
