Obituary

Born in Southern Pines, North Carolina to the late Howard Hill Sr. and Etta Frasier-Hill, Howard also known as Billy was the oldest of thirteen siblings.

Howard went to Southern Pines elementary school but his education was put on hold as the family continued to grow, he got his first job. In the late 1930s, Howard moved up north to NYC seeking work and continued to send money back home to help out his family. While in Manhattan one day, Howard met an attractive lady named Elizabeth Harrington. After courting for several years, Howard and Elizabeth got married October 19, 1954.

Howard took a job as a short order cook but as his family began to grow, he took a position as a maintenance engineer. He was employed for forty-three years with Rockefeller Center. Retiring in 1988, Howard continued to enjoy life. His hobbies included listening to jazz, reading his daily newspaper, and watching political shows.

He was predeceased by Richard, Earl, Milton (Budd), Frasier, Allen (Pooty), Joe, and Clyde (Skeet). Howard leaves behind: his wife of fifty-seven years, Elizabeth; sons, Warren and Robert; daughter-in-law, Natasha; grandchildren, Saraya, Robert Jr. and Rian; step- grand; Skylar; one great grandson, Malachi; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and family friends.

One of Howard's greatest joys was spending time with his family. With Howard you didn't just get a gourmet meal you also got pearls of wisdom.

Howard will be greatly missed, resting in the arms of God. We love you.

House Of Clay

*I have finished now with this
house of clay
Please kindly and carefully lay it away,
And let me rest from this life of pain,
Failing in sunshine, storm and rain.
Trying to help my family and friends
Turning no needy from my door
Many times I was misunderstood
When I had done the best I could.
I'm tired now so let me rest
Don't cry, don't you know
God knows best?
I have another house you know,
Where God's redeemed can go.
I don't need this house of clay
So tenderly, carefully lay it away.*
