Obituary

Larry Allan Steele, first born to the late Levie Steele Sr. and Constance Steele, was born on August 4, 1960 in Newark, NJ. He entered into eternal rest on Thursday, October 20, 2011.

Larry was educated in the Newark School system, graduating from West Side High School. He was employed by Public Service Electric and Gas Company for a few years. After Public Service, he ventured out to do private contracting work, which he was great at, he was a “JACK OF ALL TRADES.” Larry loved watching Sci-Fi movies, BBC Mysteries, Home Improvement shows and documentaries. His taste in music included Country-Western, Rock and Classical Music. He loved spending quality time with his nieces and nephews and he took great pride in helping to raise his first niece. Larry had a big heart and was always there when anyone needed him.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Constance Steele; two brothers, Michael (Rana) and Levie Jr; two sisters, Donna Steele-Ellison (Lonzia) and Tracey Steele; eight aunts, Francis Sitton (Willie), Millar, Shirley, Pauline, Zenobia Steele, Ellen Shepard, Shukkriyyah Muhammad and Evelyn Lee; nine uncles, James L. Steele, Richard, Paul, Ralph, Woodrow Jr., Charles, Jeffrey, Allan and Lawrence Cooper; five nieces; six nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Larry was preceded in death by his father, Levie Steele Sr.

God Called Your Name So Softly

*God called your name so softly,
that only you could hear
And no one heard the footsteps Of angels drawing near.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.
You're always close beside us, in everything we do,
You were our greatest treasure,
God's gift to us was you.
We will always remember that way you looked,
the way you talked and smiled,
The little things you said and did to make our lives worthwhile.
Each time we look at your picture,
you seem to smile and say, Don't be sad but courage take and love each other for my sake.
Just a prayer from the family to you,
just a memory fond and true,
In our hearts you will stay forever because we thought the world of you.*

Acknowledgement
