Obituary

Rosalie Hamilton was born March 26, 1944 in Sumter, South Carolina to Alma Williams and the late Benjamin Williams. She departed this earth on Wednesday, October 26, 2011 in Bronx Lebnon with her daughter, Beverly Williams and son, Bernard Hamilton at her side.

Rosalie Hamilton was a loving, kind and wonderful mother and grandmother. She was a funny person who came up with silly dances that would have you laughing. She also was a good cook. She couldn't keep us out the kitchen. Rosalie Hamilton was like a mother to her friends. Whenever you needed someone to talk to, she was there to listen. We will always remember her laugh that would fill a room with love and joy.

She leaves behind many who would cherish her memories. She left behind: her second oldest daughter, Beverly Williams; Norman Hamilton and Bernard Hamilton; six aunts and one uncle; eighteen grandchildren, Lashanette Williams, Shannon Greenslade, Xavier Williams, Tatiana Williams, Shakeba Williams, Shawn Williams, Shanaya Sykes, Shaqwana Williams, Shavonne Williams, Shamell Williams, Sharonda Taylor, Bernard Hamilton, Benjamin Hamilton, Briana Hamilton, Brijae Hamilton, Norman Hamilton, Nyesha Hamilton and Hezekiah Hamilton; four great grandchildren, Tamia Serenity Williams, Mekhi Williams, Zaire Richard and Zaniel Richard; one sister, Clara Byas; her mother, Alma Williams; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, many other relatives and friends.

Rosalie Hamilton was preceded in death by her son, Tyrone Hamilton, her daughter, Sharon Williams, her brother, Benjamin "Binky" Williams, her grandmother, Margie Hamilton, her father, Benjamin Williams, as well as her ex-husband, Norman Hamilton.

Rosalie you will be loved by many of us. We will never forget you and the person you became to be. You grew on us like the rose that grew from the concrete. You touched our hearts in many ways. Your voice was like music to our ears. Everyday you will cross our minds with memories, tears and laughter. We may cry, but the tears we cry are the tears of joy because you are in a better place now. Many people will miss you, but we will always have a memory of you in our hearts or on the portrait that will never be replaced. We know you will be looking down on us from heaven. You told us to be strong, and that we will be. We love you from the bottom of our hearts.

~ lovingly submitted by your daughter and son.

Sometimes I call you just to say, "Hi Mom." Other times I call you to share some exciting things that just happened. Sometimes I call you because I'm feeling upset, and I know I can always count on you to help me figure things out. Other times I call you because you have been on my mind and I want you to know how much I love you.

~ lovingly submitted by daughter, Beverly Williams
