Obituary

Alice G. White, seventy-six died peacefully on October 28, 2011, with the support of her family.

She was born July 21, 1935, in Montserrat, B.W.I., the Emerald Isle of the Caribbean, to Charles Lee and Mary Matilda White.

Alice spent her childhood in Montserrat where she was an excellent student. Upon moving to New York, she attended Business School and married her late husband, John H. White. After graduation, she worked for Montgomery Wards for many years, first as a secretary and then advancing to the position of regional buyer. She traveled through the United States as part of her career always making sure to bring home a souvenir for her only son, Charles. Later in her career, she worked as a medical secretary for Columbia-Presbyterian Hospital in the neonatology department where her motherly nature helped provide a caring atmosphere for the doctors she worked with as they provided care to sick children.

She was an active member of the Brick Presbyterian Church and was also a member of Thomas Memorial Wesleyan Church for many years. She donated and worked with various charities and was active in church events.

Her interests included family, crosswords, history, piano playing and travel. She devoted much of her time and energy as a caregiver to family members, including her mother until she passed away at age ninety-six. She also spent many precious hours nurturing and caring for her only granddaughter, Faith Montserrat Green-White.

Alice was a sweet, non-judgmental, caring person who walked with God. Her brother, Christopher White said "In all of her seventy-six years, we never once had a harsh word between us". She was a constant companion to her sister, Irene and maintained a lifelong friendship with her sister-in-law, Maggie Bramble.

Mrs. White is survived by: her son, Charles White and his spouse, Latisha Wilson; granddaughter, Faith Montserrat Green-White; sisters, Irene Bramble, Iris Lee and Doreen Lee; brothers, Christopher White, Albert Lee and Danny Lee; nieces and nephews, Joy Bramble, Joel Bramble, Cedric Bramble, Esther Lee, Ruth Lee and Joshua Lee; sister-in-law, Maggie Bramble; and friends and family too numerous to mention.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
