Obituary

Ethel Miller was born September 15, 1934 in Columbia, South Carolina to the late Hector and Frances Jones. She moved to New York City in the 1960's where she met and married the late James Miller.

Ethel worked at Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, where she retired after twenty-five years of service. Ethel enjoyed playing tennis, traveling with her husband, spending time with her family, going to the beach, watching the New York City Marathon, and watching cooking shows on television. She was a loving person, who was well-liked by many. Ethel loved her family dearly.

Ethel was preceded in death by her husband, James Miller, her son, Christopher Brown, her step-son, Jerome Miller, and her grandson, Mark Payne.

She leaves behind to cherish her memories: her children, Don Jones, Teresa Payne, and Sonia Brown; her sister, Delores Anderson; her grandchildren, Chantei Payne, Kareem Brown, and Dwayne Harrison; her great-grandchildren, Sadeera Payne and Bree Killingsworth; nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Mom,

I'm going to miss you so much. You were such a great mother. You always had a smile on your face and a kind word to say. Your love was unconditional. You took care of me and so it was my turn to take care of you. I did whatever it took, and I would do it all over again if I had to. I will never forget your last words to me, "You are my rock, but you can't help me anymore." Ma, you were my rock. You gave me life and taught me how to be the woman I am today. You are now at peace; no more suffering. You are gone, but will never be forgotten. Rest in Peace my dear mother.

Love Always,
Your daughter
Teresa

Dear Ma,

You were always there for me through thick and thin. You always took care of my wants and needs. We had a good understanding and relationship. I will miss you dearly.

Love Always,
Your daughter
Sonia

Dear Grandma,

Thank you for everything you have done for me and tried to teach me while on Earth. I Love You! Save a spot for so I can be with you again. I miss you!

Your grandson,
Kareem

Grandma,

There is nothing more special to a child than being loved and cherished by a grandparent. Some of my best memories include you. You were there to support me through all of my biggest accomplishments. Nothing in this world could replace the connection we had. Not a day will go by that you won't be on my mind. I will miss you a lot, but I know that you're in a better place watching over me. I now have a Guardian Angel and I call her grandma! I Love You!

Your granddaughter,
Chante

Ethel,

You were a great big sister. I love you and will miss you dearly.

Your sister,
Polly
