Obituary

James Anderson was born on September 13, 1989 in New York City to Tammy Huchinson Dingwall and the late Dave Anderson.

James departed us in life on October 28, 2011.

He attended high School in the Bronx, New York City.

James was also a great kidder and comedian. He always kept his family laughing. He always played the older brother in which he was the youngest. He was one to always keep an upbeat in spirits and see the best in everything no matter what the circumstances.

He leaves to cherish fond memories: his beloved mother; eight sisters; three brothers; grandmother; two grandfathers; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go!
For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me-but let me go.*

Psalm of David

Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity. For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb. Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.
