Reflection of Life

Beatrice Levonue Turner was born on September 19th, 1938 to the late Plaze and Beatrice Meadows in Newark, NJ. She was the tenth child of eleven children.

Beatrice, whom she was fondly known as “Bea” or “Bea Cee”, was educated in the Newark Public School system where she attended and graduated from East Side High School. She furthered her education by attending a Secretarial School and attending Kean University.

At an early age, she joined Greater Providence Missionary Baptist Church and was the Chairperson of the Trustee Board.

Beatrice and George Turner were married for forty-nine years. They were married on May 5th, 1962, and from this union they were blessed with two children, Ramona Davis and Tanya Oliver.

Beatrice worked for General Electric for fifteen years and after that she was employed by the Internal Revenue Service in Newark, New Jersey for thirty-five years before retiring.

Beatrice loved spending time cooking for her family. She loved going on cruises, shopping, bowling and playing bingo.

Beatrice was a very proud but private woman who kept her family close. She would always make sure that everyone was okay and made a point of telling family and friends, “If you need me call me”, even in her sickness she was taking care of business, family and the church. Whatever or whoever needed her help.

Beatrice would say “ A closed hand doesn’t let anything in or anything out and can never receive or give God’s Blessings.”

She would tell you even when she wasn’t feeling well, “I feel fine” or “I feel good today.” Beatrice loved God and knew that one glad morning when this life is over, she would fly away. God knew she was tired and He called her home to rest eternally in His arms.

Beatrice leaves to cherish memories: her loving husband, George; two daughters, Ramona Davis (Michael) and Tanya Oliver (Kenneth); three sisters, Genevieve Tappan, Antoinette Higgins and Ammie DeBose and the late Joshua, Henry, Eva, Bernice, Tessie and Isaac; three grandchildren, Khaliyah Turner, Keenan and Kiara Oliver; four sisters-in-law, Jeanette Thomas, Sylvia Meadors, Maxine Meadows and Bernice Turner; loving Godson, Damon Gibson; special cousin, Louise Gipson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

In Memory of Beatrice Turner

*As you all have prayed for me
I now pray for all of you
That through the lost, hurt, tears and pain
That God will see you through*

*The sun has simply lost a ray
But it will still forever shine
If you just keep your dear memories of me
Locked within your heart and mind*

*Yes my departure was sudden
Within the wink of Gods watchful eye
But I am now at home resting
In my father's mansion in the sky*

*Earth's pain can no longer hurt me
As my trials and tribulation are all through
From the Heavens above I'm sitting
And now watching over you*

*Our goodbyes are not forever
And this is not the end
I'll love and miss you all
Until we meet again...*
