Obituary

Stella Mae Tutt was born April 17, 1926 in Appling, Georgia to the late John and Georgia Parks, to this union five children were born, the late Esther Murray, Alice Doby, Ellen Covington all of Queens, NY, who preceded her in death, one brother, Mr. John Parks, Jr. and her sister, Mrs. Williebell Rodgers both of Queens, NY.

Stella Mae Tutt departed this life on October 31, 2011, she was eighty-five years old but still beautiful and vibrant. She received her early years of education with the Appling, Georgia School system. She left Appling, Georgia and moved to New York for a new experience and to write a book but in the process she met her beloved husband, Warren Robert Tutt (her King) of sixty-six years of marriage. She then became an excellent mother, grandmother, great grandmother and a wonderful homemaker. To this union seven children were born, Linda Yates, Sandra Tutt, Joan McCollins, the late Dennis Tutt, the late Michael Tutt and one late daughter, Yolanda Tutt, Brenda Tutt, Wayne Tutt, Sylvia Tutt and Erica Tutt, who they loved, embraced and added and accepted them as their children and made them a part of their family also.

Stella Mae loved gardening, keeping up her yards which she loved flowers immensely. She loved to Interior Decorate her home, she kept her home and children immaculate, Rule (Be The Boss) take care of the many neighborhood children, go shopping to many stores, go flea market shopping and travel to all different places in the world and fellowship at church. She was a virtuous woman.

She leaves to mourn: one brother, one sister, one aunt, Lola Hogan; eight children; eleven grandchildren, Anthony Yates, the late Kevin Yates, Antoine Tutt, Michael Tutt, Christopher Ziegler, Ebony Green, Tahir Tutt, Jhane Tutt, Tyrell Brown, Justin Tutt and Summer Sanders; six great grandchildren, Keiasha Yates, Jamal Tutt, Kevin Yates, Jr., Amir Tutt, Amarie Tutt and Aaron Tutt; one god daughter, Courtney Mack; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear
But you see, the Master called me
His voice was very clear
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one
And I know that your hearts are Heavy because I have gone away
But when the Master called me
I knew that I could not stay
Yes I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear
But you see the Master called me
And now, I'm resting here.
Yes I've crossed over to Glory
And to you I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus and we'll meet again someday.

A Tribute To A Great Lady

A very special lady Queen Stella Mae Tutt we certainly did not want to see your beautiful life come to an end. But through the grace of God you were so strong and brave you fought for so long a battle so hard and so depleting but through it all you kept your humor, your feistiness, your glamour and your strong will to live, you truly endured. You left us all beloved one to join your heavenly Father and now you are where you belong. God loving arms have embraced you and now you are safe and at peace. For those of us you leave behind you will live forever in our hearts and minds so sleep on sweet Stella until we meet again. For it is hard to let you go but we will be comforted knowing you are finally at peace and you are now with your heavenly Father, your Earthly King of sixty-six years, Robert Tutt, your two sons, one daughter, one grandson, four sisters, mother and father and other family members and friends for this we thank God. We love you very much and you will be missed.
