Obituary

Jacqueline Delph was born to Nathaniel (Calvin) and Josephine Delph on February 17, 1944 in Far Rockaway, NY. She was an only child but grew up with a few cousins whom felt like siblings. As a young child, she was very active in her church where she sang in the choir. She graduated from Far Rockaway High School in 1961. Soon after, she attended Anderson College for one year. Later she went to work in the business industry where she met and married Milton Spradley. Through this union five children were born, Elizabeth, Jennifer, Jonathan (preceded her in death), Ida and Annie. While raising her children she helped establish the childcare service at her church, and also started a girl scouts program. She retired from Covenant House of NY as a caseworker in 2002.

“Jackie” as she was called by all who knew her was a very vibrant woman. Jackie was full of energy and fun loving, she was often seen smiling and laughing. She loved to travel and went away as often as she could. Whether it was going to California or New Jersey she shared her adventures with her husband or children showing them something new. She enjoyed reading and crocheting sweaters and blankets. She also enjoyed spending time with friends and family. During her final years family members surrounded her all the time. She shared day-to-day activities with her grandchildren, which gave her much joy.

Jacqueline is survived by: her husband, Milton Spradley; daughters, Elizabeth (Kevin), Jennifer (Daryl), Ida (Brian) and Annie (Paul); nine grandchildren, Taylor, Kevin Jr., Jacquay, Kristopher, Jadyl, Ajoni, Bryce, Katya and Paul Jr.; two nephews, Eric and Walter Spradley; special cousins, Timothy and Pamela Clarke; her best friend, Emma Scott; and a host of relatives and friends.

I Needed The Quiet

*I needed the quiet so He drew me aside,
Into the shadows where we could confide.
Away from the bustle where all day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.*

*I needed the quiet tho at first I rebelled
But gently, so gently, my cross He upheld.
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things.
Tho weakened in body, my spirit took wings
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay.
He loved me so greatly, He drew me away.*

*I needed the quiet. No prison, my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.
I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside.*

-Alice H. Mortenson
