Obituary

Daisy Lee Austin-Cherry was born November 21, 1944 to the late Mr. Leroy Austin and Ms. Ruby Lee Austin in Goldsboro, North Carolina.

She was educated in the Wayne County Public School system in Goldsboro, NC, graduating in the class of 1963 from Dillard High School. She worked many years as a babysitter in her community, then as a manager and cashier at a movie theater for over twenty years. After retiring, her love for children would not allow her to stay retired. She became a N.Y.P.D. School Crossing Guard until her passing.

Daisy was a loving wife, sister, mother, grandmother and great grandmother.

Her love of God and family touched the lives of everyone she came in contact with. Her joy was giving nicknames to her twenty-five grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were her beloved husband, Clarence Cherry, beloved son, Anthony Earl Cherry, her first grandson, Anthony, as well as two brothers, Leroy Jr. and Richard.

Daisy leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Lisa, Beverly and Ketia; and one son, Fredrick, all of New York; two brothers, Eddie of New York and David James of New Jersey; her lifelong companion, Mr. Fred; her sister, Barbara Ruth Odetta; all her sisters from 1370; her goddaughter, Michelle; sisters-in-law, Margaret, Josie, Mable, Pervilla and Earlene; and all of her children she helped cross every morning and afternoon; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

*God looked around His garden,
And He found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this Earth,
And saw your tired face.*

*He put His arms around you,
And lifted you to rest.*

*God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.*

*He knew you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He knew that you would never,
Get well on earth again.*

*He saw that the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be Thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.*

*For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*
