Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright! There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last. Did you wonder why I so calmly trod the valley of the shade? Oh! But Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade. And He came Himself to meet me in that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still: Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will. There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand; Do it now, while life remaineth - You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home: Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!

No Time For Sad Remembrance

There's no time for sad remembrances, because I'm home where I belong I've conquered all my battles, I've even heard the trumpet's song. I've climbed my highest mountain and I've reached an even peak, and I've found that peace and true reward that you have yet to seek. There's no time for sad remembrances for you have a precious life; So find comfort in my journey please don't bear this pain and strife. Oh! My Father's house is perfect just like He said it would be, So dry your tears because I'm home and now I'm free. I am part of all the beauty that your world has yet to see; So don't be sad about my journey, Just be glad that I am free!
