Cube Murray Sr. was born in Hessmer, Louisiana on March 24, 1914 to his late father Gustavo and mother Clara Francisco Murray. He departed this life peacefully on Monday, November 14, 2011 at 9:00 p.m.

At an early age, he decided farm life wasn't for him and quickly learned the Culinary Arts and utilized his skills as a Chef in many places including Camp Claiborne and Camp Livingston Army Camps and the Downtown Greyhound Bus Terminal in Louisiana. As a young man, he sought greater opportunity & relocated to Memphis, TN for ten years where he worked as a Chef in the famous Peabody Hotel. He then moved to Passaic, NJ and became Head Chef of the Dietary Dept of St. Mary's Hospital where he worked twenty-six years before retiring in 1984.

He was preceded in death by his mother and father, his two brothers and one sister.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his former wife and mother of his children, Delores Washington Murray, his daughter, Nichole and his son, Cube Jr.; five brothers-in-law; one sister-in-law; nine nephews; three nieces; four nieces-in-law; thirteen great nieces; fourteen great nephews; one great-great niece; and a host of friends he has made over the years.

DAD

{Written By: Nikki Murray}

Daddy I love you, I really hope you know
Knowing that you care about me makes my heart a glow
Ever since I was little, you have always been the one
To encourage and inspire me to have my day in the sun
You always give me good advice whenever I'm in need
Now that I've grown up, I'm making my own way
Even though sometimes, I forget to call you every day
I don't forget on purpose; please believe me it's true
For Daddy don't you know how much I love you?

I know sometimes I make you mad;
And make you scream and shout
But isn't that what having a daughter is all about?
All jokes aside, please hear me this is real
I'll always be your little girl and proud I'll make you feel

DEDICATED to my Dad
