Reflections of Life

Isaac (Ike) Wilson, Jr. was born June 19, 1925 in Charlotte, North Carolina to Isaac Wilson and Rebecca B. Wilson.

At an early age, Ike decided to go in the service in which he joined the Army Air Force. Then to 646 Tank Destroy Service in Pacific Theatre. A former member of the 38 Links Society Club of Paterson, and also a member of NAACP.

Ike was employed by Yonkers Construction, Yonkers, NY and Ward Pament Co. Nyack, NY. He worked as a Forman for Cestone of Bloomfield, NJ for many years. He retired in 1989.

Ike loved his family and friends and was always waiting to assist and help someone in need.

He was predeceased by his wife, Corine Wilson, father, Isaac Wilson, mother, Rebecca B. Wilson and sister, Ethel Talford.

Isaac (Ike) Wilson, Jr. departed this life on Monday, November 14, 2011 and leaves to cherish the memory of his life: his daughter, Queen E. Hughes (Edward Hughes, Jr.); son, Isaac Wilson, III; three grandchildren, Wayne David, Robin D. Ford and Isaac C. Wilson; one great grand, Alexis N. Ford; one sister, Bertha Dancy of Charlotte, NC; one brother-in-law, William Talford of Dover, Delaware; and a host of nephews, nieces and cousins.

To Those I Love

*To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*
