Reflections of Life

Madeline R. Farrar was born to the late James and Edna Farrar on October 20, 1923. Madeline was raised and attended schools in Chase City, Virginia. In later years, Madeline and her family relocated to Paterson, New Jersey.

Madeline was employed at the Greater Paterson General Hospital in Wayne, New Jersey for many years until her retirement. She was a lifetime member of Canaan Baptist Church in Paterson, New Jersey. She was also a member of American Temple #258, I.B.P.O.E. of W., Paterson, New Jersey. On November 26, 2011, Madeline left this earthly home to rest with the Father. Madeline was predeceased by her sister, Sallie Farrar Barrett and two nephews, Robert and Isaac Farrar.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: five nephews, Ronald (Catherine) of North Carolina, Donald, Wilbert (Linda) of Paterson, Frederick (Aleatrice) of South Carolina and Rodney (Sonya) of Paterson. Madeline leaves a dear and devoted friend, Delores Rouse of North Carolina; and a host of great nieces, great nephews, other relatives and friends.

To Madeline R. Farrar our aunt, a special gift from God, a stand in for our mom, a friend who we confided in when problems came along. You've given us so much of you, brought joy into our day, we're sending you a "Thank You" for your help along the way.
