My Brother

I often wondered
How God could have made such a Strong Man!

My Brother, from the day he was born
To the days he grew up
His gentleness and quietness
Meant so much!

He was a Brother that looked at you
With a smile and a grin
With all of his heart, He would send

Through his sickness
Through his pain
My brother always remained the same!

I often wondered
How God could have made such a Strong Man.
God softly spoke to my Brother and said
“I am the light, I am the way.”
And he gently closed his eyes
On that fateful day.

My brother left a message to all of us
“I shall not complain!”
Please family and friends
Just do the same!

Come walk with him through those Golden Gates
And you shall see
God has given him the victory!

I often wondered How God could have made such a Strong Man
Cause God’s footprints were left in the sand!

May my Brother Rest in Peace,

With all our love
Pam and Family
