Obituary

Frances Louise Williams of New York, NY was called Monday afternoon on December 12, 2011 to be with the Lord.

She was born on October 25, 1944 in Rock Hill, SC where she attended Emmett Scott High School. She moved to New York City in 1962. Shortly after moving to New York City, she married Arthur James Williams. From their union, two beautiful daughters were born.

Frances was a loving, kind and spirited person. She spent most of her time and energy on her family. She was especially close to her mother. She worked as a Teacher's Aide at P.S. 185 for a number of years. When she retired, she became a volunteer at P.S. 185 where she spent many years giving her love to the children. She was well loved by her family, friends and her community.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Arthur Williams; children, Stephanie Williams and Greta Williams; she had four grandchildren, Whitney Simon, Zaekima Simon, Derek Moten and Gregory Dickerson; three great grandchildren, Skylar Simon, and twins, Meagan and Madison Moten; her mother, Frances Harp; one brother, Anthony Harp; three aunts, Louise McMullen of Rock Hill, SC, Ruth England (Victor) and Naomi Johnson (Johnnie) of New York; mother-in-law, Janie Thomas of Rock Hill, SC; two sisters-in-law, Helen McCullough and Darlene Thomas of Rock Hill, SC; special cousin, Joanne Wright of Rock Hill, SC; special niece, Sherry Blake of San Antonio, TX; and a host of cousins and other relatives all of whom she loved dearly.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seems all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
