Obituary

Mr. Levelt Adisson was born in L'estere, Haiti on July 3, 1950 to the late Justine Adisson and Andre Cherie. He was educated in Haiti and moved to Port-Au-Prince. He married the late Marie Andre Semexant. Out of that union came 4 children, a son, Carl Adisson, and four daughters, Immacula Charles, Katiana Adisson, Soukaina Adisson, and Yvette Adisson.

In 1980, Levelt left his homeland and moved to Connecticut. He lived there most of his life where he worked at Polycast Company. He was a businessman of all trades.

He loved his family very much and would constantly keep in touch via calls and visits. Levelt was known to tell jokes (blague) and when you were around him he made sure you get a good laugh.

At the start of 2000, unfortunately, Levelt was struck with an illness that forced him to retire early. He left his friends in Conn. and moved to Georgia to be with his son, Carl . He was on a brief vacation in Haiti where he spent his final time on this earth. He left us on December 10, 2011.

He leaves to cherish:

UNIQUE, AFIN QUE QUICONQUE CROIT EN LUI NE PERISSE
POINT, MAIS QU'IL AIT LA VIE ETERNELLE - JEAN 3:16

Psautne 23

Le Seigneur es mon berger, je ne manqueral de rien. Il me meta u repos dans des prés d'herbe fraîche, il me conduit au calme prés de l' eau. Il ranime mes forces, il me guide sur la bonne voie, parce qu'il est le berger d'Isreal. Même si je passe par la vallée obscure, je ne redoute aucan mal, Seigneur, car tu m'accompagnes. Tu me conduls, tu me défends, voilà ce qui me rassure. Face à ceux qui me veulent du mal, tu prépares un banquet pour moi. Tu m'accueilles en versant sur ma tête un peu d'hulle parfumée. Tu remplis ma coupe jusqu'aubord. Oui, tous les tours de ma vie, ta bontè, ta gènèrosité me suivront pas à pas. Seigneur, je reviendrai dans ta maison aussi longtemps que je vivrai.
