Obituary

Milton E. Abrams (a.k.a “The Professor”) was born in New York City to Milton J. and Margaret Abrams on September 9, 1941. He was the eldest of three children.

Milton graduated from Samuel Gompers High School. Upon graduation he enlisted in the Air Force and was stationed in France. While there, he learned French and traveled extensively all over Europe.

Milton furthered his education by attending several universities, Michigan State, NYU and Fordham and obtained a Masters Degree and considered a teaching career. While pursuing his degrees, he began working for the United States Postal Service, in various positions until his illness and untimely homecoming. He was a very diligent, hardworking person.

Milton was the most mild mannered, had a great sense of humor, and was a generous person. He shared his knowledge, intellect, books, computerized devices, chess sets and anything that would enlighten your mind!

Milton was an avid reader and over the years gave and donated hundreds of books to anyone and the library. He felt reading encompassed and opened up the sleeping mind! Sports of any kind he loved, and he started playing table tennis as a teenager, bicycling for forty years to and from work, and walked miles traveling from Manhattan to the Bronx. But Chess was his love! Milton taught his nephews, nieces, cousins and friends how to play. He belonged to the U.S. Chess Federation and the New York City Chess Club. Milton will be deeply missed by everyone that knew him. He was the pillar of the Abrams Family.

Milton leaves to mourn: one brother, James D. Abrams of Cove City, NC; two sisters-in-law, Carolyn B. Abrams of Cove City, NC and Bernice H. Abrams who preceded him in death; one sister, Lena Abrams of New York City; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and family.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
