Come To Me

*God saw you getting tired,
and a cure was not to be,
so he put his arms around you
and whispered, "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you,
and saw you pass away,
and although we loved you dearly,
we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*

The Obituary

Mr. William Walker is a Native New Yorker. He was known to most as Kindu. He was the second oldest child born to Rosalee Walker and William Jenkins.

William met Michelle and later married her on November 15, 2005. They resided in Brooklyn, N.Y. until his death.

William departed this life on January 1, 2012 at Bellevue Hospital.

He loved to dance, laugh and make everyone happy.

He leaves to cherish his memory: Michelle Walker; children, Briton, Jeanette, Omar, Raquel, Jamel, QuaAsia, Lisa, Rasheed, Jahmain, Latrell, Jahlil; nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

William recently joined The True Light Ministry of Pastor Andrew Washington in 2010 and turned his life over to God.

His last words to us would be:
"For Rosalee, For Showsalee. I'm at peace now Holla.

God Loves U Du And So Do We

God looked around His garden
and found an empty place.
Then He looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.
He placed His arms around you
and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He saw the road was getting rough
and the hills were hard to climb,
so He closed your eyes and whispered
"Peace be Thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
but you did not go alone,
a part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
If love would have saved you,
you never would have died.
