Reflections Of Life

Bertha Spivey departed this life on January 4, 2012. She was born March 28, 1928 in Lugoff, South Carolina to the late Fannie Nelson and Frank Clark. Her formative years were spent in Camden, South Carolina and in the early 1940's she moved to Brooklyn, New York. Later she would find the love of her life, the late Hubert Spivey and they were married on February 16, 1946. To this union two children were born, Frank D. Spivey of Hammonton, New Jersey, and Gloria Spivey Hubbard of Montclair, New Jersey.

In the late 90's, Bertha retired from Claara Mass Medical Center after more than thirty years of employment.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Gloria and Frank; her grand daughter Kecia; her grandchildren, Katoria and Malaysia; and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
