Reflections of Life

Jacobe Lee Hyatt began his life on September 27, 1973 in Paterson, NJ, to Magalene Legette and Judge Lee Hyatt. He was tragically taken from us far too soon on January 1, 2012.

He was educated in the Paterson Public system and attended P.S. #6 and Eastside High School.

Jacobe was employed at various jobs throughout his life. While working at Houlihans, he discovered his passion for cooking. He was often encouraged to open his own restaurant.

He was an outstanding friend, a loving father, a devoted brother, and caring son.

Jacobe was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Mrs. Cressie and Mr. Willie Hyatt and maternal grandfather, Mr. Warren Legette, Sr.

He leaves to cherish wonderful memories: mother, Magalene Legette; father, Judge Lee Hyatt, both of Paterson, NJ; sons, ("The Twins"), Jahmir and Quamir McDonald, Paterson, NJ; brothers, Michael (Cumeisha) Hyatt, Stroudsburg, PA and Derwin Braxton, Alabama; sisters, Tonya E. Hyatt, Paterson, NJ and Theresa Gross, Cleveland, Ohio; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Georgia Legette, Lake View, SC; and a host of niece, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and countless friends. Jacobe also leaves to mourn his passing another brother, not by blood, but by love, devotion and years of friendship, Daniel Fields, Crystal Fields, a trusted companion, and a very special friend.

He is gone, but never will be forgotten. He will be deeply missed by those who loved him.

A BROTHER

A brother, my brother. We laughed, we fought, we cried into the night. The love we shared could never be compared. My heart hurts because you are not here for me. When I took my first steps, you were there for me, as always Helping and protecting me without my knowledge. I was given my oath; there you were, as a good brother should be. Now you are gone, flying with the angels high above me, and I am left without you. If only you knew how much you taught me, you always said to me, "Learn from my mistakes," I listened to your advice, I followed your wishes, and I did the right thing. I hope that you are proud of the man that I became. Fly high brother, my brother, sore with your new wings. Watch over me from heaven, as you did on Earth. I will always love you, Brother, My Brother.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them during their time of bereavement.
