Reflections of Life

Connell C. Miller, the daughter of the late G. Irene Arnaud and John Dickerson, was born on June 9, 1924 in Harlem NYC. She departed from this life January 3rd, 2012 at her residence in Co-op City, Bronx, NY.

She received her formal education from the Public School system in NYC. As a young woman, she studied Photography and Radiology. She also loved horses and loved to ride them.

Connell was married to the late Levi Roy Miller on December 13, 1947. They were married for over forty-five years.

Connell worked various jobs during her career. The job she enjoyed the most was working for AT&T in which she affectionately called "Ma Bell." She retired from AT&T after working nearly twenty years.

Connell was a people person, when you met her you would never forget her. She enjoyed life to the fullest whether it was traveling or visiting her relatives. She has traveled to Europe, Africa, various Caribbean islands and several cities within the US. She was a considerate and generous woman, who will truly be missed.

In later years, she was affiliated with Sharon Baptist Church in Farmville, VA and a supporter of Rocky Mount Church in New Cumberland County, VA. She was the initiator of her grandfather's funds, The G.G. Cosby Educational Fund.

Preceding her in death were her mother, Irene Arnaud, her brother, Raymond Cosby, as well as her aunt, Theresa Fludd.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her niece, Elizabeth Pemberton; three nephews, Raymond Jr., Randall and Cornell Cosby; an aunt, Mrs. Vivian Minyard, special cousins, Mrs. Edith Showells and Mrs. Jackie Green; and a host of cousins and friends.

God Called Your Name So Softly

God called your name so softly,
that only you could hear
And no one heard the footsteps
Of angels drawing near.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.
You're always close beside us,
in every thing we do,
You were our greatest treasure,
God's gift to us was you.

We will always remember that way you looked,
the way you talked and smiled,
The little things you said and did to make our lives worthwhile.
Each time we look at your picture,
you seem to smile and say,
Don't be sad but courage take
and love each other for my sake.
Just a prayer from the family to you,
just a memory fond and true,
In our hearts you will stay forever
because we thought the world of you.
