

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.
When I am dead my dearest
Sing no sad songs for me
Plant thou no roses at my head
Nor shady cypress tree
Be the green grass above me
With showers and dewdrops wet
And if thou wilt remember
And if thou wilt, forget.
I shall not see the shadows,
I shall not fear the rain;
I shall not hear the nightingale
Sing on as if in pain;
And dreaming through the twilight
That doth not rise nor set,
Haply I may remember,
And haply may forget.

Lovingly and Sorrowfully,
The Family

Life Reflections

Samuel Cole, III was born on October 25, 1939 in Newark, New Jersey, son of Mary Crowley Cole and Samuel Cole, II.

Sam attended Newark Public Schools and attended Weequahic High School for one year prior to transferring to Thomas Jefferson High School, in Elizabeth. He graduated high school in 1957. Upon graduation, he entered the United States Navy and served during peacetime. He later attended Rutgers University in Newark, New Jersey and graduated with a degree in Engineering.

Samuel Cole was married to Marian McIntyre in 1965 and from this union two children were born. He resided with his family in Roselle for many years. He later moved to Linden and subsequently to Plainfield, New Jersey.

Samuel was an avid track fan. He ran track in high school and continued his love of the sport for years to come. He made an annual trip to the Penn Relays with his late brother in law, James LeGrand. As a lover of sports, he was a big supporter of his son’s sports activities and enjoyed going to many high school games, watching his son play basketball and his daughter cheer.

He took an active role in his children’s schooling making sure they were prepared for College.

Samuel was employed as a Systems Engineer for IBM in Cranford, New Jersey and retired after twenty-five years of service. In his retirement, he continued to work as a consultant for IBM in New Jersey.

Samuel Cole, III departed this life on Monday, January 16, 2012 at his North Plainfield, New Jersey home at the age of 72. He was predeceased by his parents, Mary and Samuel Cole, II.

He leaves to cherish fond memories, a son, Samuel Cole, IV of Roselle, NJ; a daughter, Veronica Cole of Lumberton, NJ; two grandchildren, Colby Chadwick and Jordan Wilborn; a great grandchild, Kennedy Jacques Chadwick; a sister, Betty LeGrand of Colonia, NJ and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
