Obituary

On Monday, January 16, 2012, Judy was called home. Julie Griffin, lovingly called “Judy,” was born the last of ten children to the late Leroy Griffin and the late Shirley Peterson Griffin on April 22, 1966, in Manhattan, New York. One of her siblings preceded her in death.

Judy spent her entire life in the New York Metropolitan area. She was educated in the New York Public School System. Judy was the youngest of ten children. To meet her was to love her. Judy positively touched the lives of her family and friends with her frankness, honesty, loving heart, giving spirit and straight forwardness. Although she never married, or had any children of her own, she served as a “mother figure” to a host of nieces and nephews. We will remember her as a loving daughter, sister, aunt and friend. The magnitude to which she will be missed is difficult to express. We will comfort ourselves with the fond memories of her laughter, love of family, roller skating, fashion, good conversation and music. God will be our strength . We will give thanks for having an opportunity to share loving relationships with this special woman, aunt, sister and friend.

Left to cherish her memory are: her loving siblings, Derrick Griffin, Joseph Griffin, Victor Griffin, Leroy Griffin, Gwendolyn Griffin, Shirley Griffin Jr., Jessie Griffin and Pamela Griffin; honorary sister, Dorothea “Popeye” Jordan; honorary brother, Willis Jordan; one sister-in-law, one brother-in-law, Ralph Bunch; two paternal aunts, Betty and Jessie Arthurton; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.
