Obituary

On September 5, 1960, in Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City, the gods blessed Catherine and David with a baby girl named Beverly Ann Taylor. They raised her in Harlem, around the Sugar Hills area. This is where she attended elementary school P.S. 43, and moved forward to John F. Kennedy High School. It was there Beverly developed this work ethic, that awarded her with numerous state and government jobs. As well as her last job with the office of Currency Comptroller.

At the age of twenty one, Beverly was blessed with her own bundle of joy, Jasmine C. Taylor, which she loved and adored so much. Some years later she fell ill, which left her with a sixteen year battle. But as we all know Beverly, she never backed down from anything. She fought up until her calling with the Lord.

She leaves to mourn: her mother, Catherine; father, David; daughter, Jasmine; granddaughter, Ja'Killa Robinson; son-in-law, Kenneth; five sisters, Sheila, Linda, Renee, Phondra and Gwendolyn; four brothers, Frank, Kenny, David Jr. and Jerry; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and friends. We all are appreciative to have shared that period of time with her and if you knew her you know she'll be saying "Sis don't cry, I'm free, I'm free of all the pain and suffering." We will all miss her.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
