Reflection of Life

Lee Edward Hammonds Sr., son of the late Hattie Bell Mcmillian Hammonds and Douglas Hammonds was born on October 12th 1949 in Robeson County, NC. He departed this world on January 21st 2012 at home in Irvington, NJ.

“Jack” as he was affectionately known, grew up in Abbottsburg, NC and attended Booker T. Washington school in Clarkton, NC. He started his work history at the young age of ten and continued to work until the day God called him home. Jack moved to New Jersey at a young age and later started several successful businesses. Some of his most successful businesses included catering (which was his passion), construction, Ice, produce and many more (too many to list). Lee was a passionate individual, always on the move and willing to work for anything he wanted as well as towards achieving his goals.

“Jack would say... “whatever I touched will turn to gold” meaning if he started something he would see it through... “Another one of his sayings were...”It’s your World...”

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife of twenty-two years Lillian (Sis) Hammonds; three brothers, Lee Douglas Hammonds (Janet), Lee Junior Hammonds (Erma), Horace Lee Hammonds (Vickie) all of Lumberton, NC; his children, Lee Edward Hammonds Jr. (Tyic) of Lumberton, NC; Howard Hammonds of Lumberton, NC, Jonathan Weathers of Jersey City, NJ., Patricia McQueary (Greg) of Long Beach ,CA, Gary Weathers of Bladenboro, NC, Timothy Weathers of Jersey City, NJ, Melissa MacDonald of Lumberton, NC, Kelvin Shaw (Monique) of West Point, VA, Denise Lott (Canel) of Glenburnie, MD, Lisa Williams of McDougal, GA, and Tracy Williams of NJ; one god-daughter, Danielle Williams of Newark, NJ, twenty-four grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; seven step-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and family.

Jack was preceded in death by one sister, Mattie Bell Hammonds Dillard.

Meadowbrook Cemetery
Lumberton, North Carolina

Repast

Friends and family are invited to come back to the Church after the Interment for the Repast

*Our hearts may cry
Our eyes may weep
Our nights are long
From lack of sleep
Our minds will wonder
To those moments we shared
And those endearing memories
Of how you cared
We'll miss your touch
We'll miss those things you loved so much
Your busy ways
Your working will
The fun you have behind the grill
We'll always miss those things you do
But most of all we'll all miss you
Rest in Peace Daddy*

*Lovingly submitted by the children
By: Greg McQueary*

Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.*
