Reflections of Life

Carrie Mae (Gamble) Caddle was born on November 6, 1937. She was one of nine children born to the late Issac and Tinnie (Hickson) Gamble in Florence, South Carolina. She received her formal education in Lake City, South Carolina, where she grew up. In her early twenties, Carrie decided to move to New York City to join her elder sister Catherine, where she proceeded to receive a Nursing degree. In 1969, she obtained a nursing position at Bellevue Hospital, where she retired in 1992.

On Sunday, January 22, 2012 at LIJ Northshore Hospital in Manhasset, New York, surrounded by her loved ones, she said her final goodbyes, then reached for the Lord peacefully.

In June of 1975, Carrie married the love of her life, the late Kenneth Caddle, in Brooklyn, New York, Carrie Mae became a widow when her husband preceeded her in death in July of 2005.

Carrie Mae loved her family. She was known for her caring and gently ways. Her smile, nurturing touch, and special relationships she had with generations of children is what she is most known for. Carrie was a member of Manna From Heaven Ministries, Inc. in Saint Albans, New York, where she was the first mother.

Those left to cherish her are: one daughter, Carrie Lee (Gamble) Davis; son-in-law, Apostle, Dr. Robert Davis; special daughter niece, Cathy Gamble; two grandchildren, Taiwan Davis and Tamu (Davis) LeNoir, grandson-in-law, Tyreef LeNoir; four great grandchildren, Tevin, Tykera, Marcus and Tayiana; one sister, Catherine Campbell; one brother, Simon (LC) Gamble; special grand nephew; Demetrius Willis and Ross Davis; and a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and a host of loving friends.

Carrie Mae Caddle will be truly missed. Her wholehearted spirit and memory will continue to live on in the hearts of all.

To Those I Love

To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."
