

Rest

God saw you getting weary,
So He did what He knew best.
He came and stood beside you,
And whispered, "Come and rest."
You wished no one a last farewell,
Nor even said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
When God called you to come to rest,
You didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.

Acknowledgement

The McClish Family would like to express our sincere appreciation for the many kind and beautiful expressions of sympathy and love shown during our time of bereavement.
May God sustain and grant you His richest blessings.

Professional Services Provided By

COTTON FUNERAL SERVICE
130 Main Street
Orange, NJ
973-675-6400

1025 Bergen Street
Newark, NJ
973-926-6400

COTTON-PARKER FUNERAL HOME
37 Clinton Avenue
Jersey City, NJ
201-433-1000

www.honoryou.com

In Loving Memory of

Yvonne McClish

Sunrise
June 7, 1938

Sunset
February 16, 2012

Tuesday, February 21, 2011 - 11:00 a.m.

PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH

34 Hudson Street • Newark, NJ
Rev. Rex Edwards, Officiating
Rev. Theodore James, Organist

Order of Service

Musical Prelude

Processional

Scripture Reading

Isaiah 12:2 (Old)

Romans 8:38-39 (New)

Prayer

Musical Selection Reginald Thomas

Obituary DeVaughn Johnson

Tributes/Reflections (2 Minutes Only) Family & Friends

Eulogy

Musical Selection Eric Hayes

Benediction

Entombment

Woodbridge Memorial Gardens
Woodbridge, New Jersey

Obituary

Yvonne McClish, the daughter of the late Violet Hollenback and the late Alonzo Authurs, was born in Newark, New Jersey on June 7, 1938. She attended South Side High School.

Yvonne found love when she met and married her life partner, Richard McClish. God blessed her with six children.

Yvonne was the matriarch of her family and dedicated her life to raising her children, and assisted with rearing her grandchildren. She was loyal to the Pilgrim Baptist Church, in Newark, New Jersey, where she taught Sunday school and held a Deaconess position.

She was a pillar of the community, being a member of the Schley Street Block Association. During her children's school years, she was heavily involved in the school Parent Teacher Association and served briefly as a substitute teacher.

God called Yvonne home on Thursday, February 16, 2012. She was a strong, outspoken woman, who was caring and highly respected in her community. She will be forever missed by her family and friends; but will not be alone, as she has been reunited with her daughter, Renee'.

Yvonne has left behind her one and only, living sister, Sandra; husband, Richard; children, Sheila, Darlene, David, Darryl, and Kenya; grandchildren, Christopher, Asia, Leah, Medina, Erica, DeVaughn, Jaida, Darryl Jr., Chad, Danielle, Tinuade, and Dylan; one great grandchild, Nylah; nieces and nephews. Furthermore, her family was always growing, with the additions of Rodney, Sean, Wendy, Aileen, Tatiana and Tyleen.

Yvonne is now with the Lord, our savior, watching over her loved ones as their angel.

Y
V
O
N
N
E

M
C
C
L
I
S
H