Obituary

Lisa Worsley was born March 31, 1957 in Newark, New Jersey to the parents of George and Ella Mae Worsley. Lisa attended Newark Public Schools and she was loved and appreciated by everyone who knew her. She was very personable, soft-spoken and she was always ready to listen. Lisa would offer her advice whenever it was needed, however, she would also listen to advice given to her at times. She loved good food, socializing and dancing. Listening to "Old School" music and playing with her grandchildren brought her great pleasure. We shall always remember her wonderful smile that could light up a room. She will be greatly missed by all of us. Her memories will live in all of our hearts forever. Let us celebrate her life and not her death because her spirit will live in all of us forever. Lisa would have wanted it that way.

Lisa for the past several years was fighting a battle for her life and was called home on February 18, 2012. She was a fighter who was able to overcome many obstacles and fought a courageous battle all the way to the end. Receiving her in heaven is her husband, Horace Frost; her mother, Ella Mae Worsley; her father, George Worsley Sr.; her brother, Gregory Worsley and her two grandson's Rajohn Epps and Gregory Hightower.

Lisa leaves to cherish fond memories: a devoted, loving daughter, Sameerah Frost; a son, John Worsley (Tahita) of Irvington; two brothers, Jeffery of Newark and George (Karen) of Somerset, NJ; one granddaughter, Fajah Frost; two grandsons, Rashaan Hightower and Zaki Worsley; and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
