Obituary

*To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose purpose under the Heavens.
Ecclesiastes 3:1*

A Time To Be Born: Robert Jackson was born August 3, 1947 in New York City to the late Sidney and Mary Jackson. He was the sixth child of six siblings: Mildred Douglass, Zimeva Jackson McCartha, Mary Herron, Effie Jones who all preceded him in death. He is survived by one sister, Nancy Cummings.

A Time To Love: Robert Jackson was a loving and remarkable man who had a great amount of love for his family despite all the trial and tribulations he went through.

A Time To Plant: Robert completed his education in New York City where he continued his journey and became a Maintenance Aide at Manhattan Psychiatric Center on Wards Island. He later met his companion, Debra Belton who also preceded him in death. In this union they had a son, Tyrone Belton. Tyrone and Robert had a very special son and father relationship.

A Time To Die: Robert Jackson passed away into eternal rest January 10, 2012 at Jacobi Medical Center. He leaves to cherish; his son, Tyrone Belton; daughter-in-law, Antoinette Belton; five grandchildren, Mikah, Meki, Jaleel and Tylah Belton; and his surviving sister, Nancy Cummings; and a host of nieces, nephews, friends and other family members.

If I should leave this world without a warning and not even a whisper or a fond farewell. Grieve not for me because I am no longer here. I have given myself to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Who I accompanied in the heavens above.

I hope you'll forgive me if I have ever hurt you. Please remember me for who I was and not how I left you. Have faith that I am near you. God shall and He will keep all our spirits close together including mines.

I love you all my faithful friends and family. Whisper softly to one another. I love you and remember there is always a brighter tomorrow. We shall meet again.
