Obituary

Janet David passed away peacefully at 6:35 p.m. on Sunday, March 11, 2012 at Harlem Hospital in New York City. Janet was born in 1932 at New York's Lyon Hospital. She was the daughter of the late Joanie and Ira David. Janet was the oldest of three children who she loved dearly and helped to care for.

Janet was educated in the New York City Public School system and throughout her work career completed various leadership training seminars and job-related course work. Janet was employed in the Classified Ads department of the NY Amsterdam News and later recruited by the Newspaper Guild as a union representative, a position which she held until her retirement in the mid-1990's.

Janet was a people-person with an outgoing personality and was a member of Community Social Organizations. Janet loved fine dining, theater arts, shopping, and time with friends. Janet was known for looking good. She had a reputation of being tough, but her bark was bigger than her bite. Janet had a heart of gold. Janet was a part of many people, and will be greatly missed.

She leaves behind: her loving companion, Richard Granady, brother, Donald David (Sharon) and a dear friend she called Auntie, Ruth. In addition to a host of other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
