Obituary

Otto Eaddy was born on May 3, 1946 in Florence, South Carolina to the late James Eaddy and the late Eliza B. Eaddy. Otto departed this life on Wednesday, March 14, 2012.

Otto was affectionately known to family and close friends as “Toe”. He was educated in the New York City Public School System. Otto worked various jobs as a printer and none was more rewarding than working at Firma Printing Company. He was a dedicated employee there for over thirty years. Later in his life, he retired and married Sadie Woodley.

Otto was blessed with many pleasures. Some of his favorite pleasures were driving home to South Carolina, watching sports with family and friends, fishing and eating some of his favorite foods like sweet potatoes and fatback. He also had a love for dressing. He loved to look his best. Otto was outspoken, he would tell you how he felt. He was also easygoing and a joy to be around. He loved his family and friends and was loved by all who knew him.

Otto was preceded in death by one brother, Mr. James Eaddy.

Otto leaves to cherish his memories: his beloved wife, Mrs. Sarah Eaddy of NYC; three daughters, Ruby (Robert) Vaughn of NYC, Delores (Bevon) Trail of NYC and Marcia Fields of Tallehasee, Florida; three sisters, Lula (Floyd) Williamson of NYC, Lucille Lopez of NYC and Jessie Eaddy of Florence, SC; one brother, Robert C. Eddie of NYC; fourteen grandchildren, Darryl, Robert, Cameron, Kevina, Bevonna, Travon, Darius, Zyriek, Javin, Jaila, Alise, Robyn, Chynise and Cassandra, three great-grandchildren Wyappt, London and Kyrianna; three Godchildren, LaDawn, Donte and Diamond; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done,
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and summer days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun,
Of happy memories that I leave,
When life is done.*

-Helen Lowrie Marshall
