

Unstoppable

Dear Mom,

I remember when I was a young child how happy I was because you were unstoppable in your pursuit of making sure I had the very best you could give.

As I got older I was able to see how unstoppable you were in other areas of your life.

You were unstoppable in that whenever you were down you always found a way to bounce back.

You were unstoppable in your relationship with your siblings so much so you loved one another.

Because of your sisters and brothers, as a child I didn't know what it was to be homeless or hungry.

You were unstoppable when you made sure we always loved our father.

You were unstoppable in making sure whoever came in contact with you, knew who the God of your life was through Jesus Christ and that no matter what happens in a person's life Christ's redeeming powers is still worthy to be praised.

You were unstoppable in that even if there was no time for you, you made time for others.

As I write you make me feel like trying to be better than I've ever been.

Even right now you're unstoppable in bringing together what needs to be brought together.

And Superstar, for these things and many more I say thank you. Bless you Mom.

Life Reflections

Evelyn Easter Holloway was born on September 11, 1933 in Newark, NJ to the late Moses and Nellie Easter. Evelyn was educated in the Newark Public School System, where she graduated from Newark Vocational School as a beautician.

Evelyn was united in marriage to the late George Holloway on July 17, 1951. From this union four sons and two daughters were born.

At an early age, Evelyn accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior and made her life's work spreading the message of love, peace and the Lord's word. She was a faithful member of the True Love Missionary Baptist Church and was truly a soldier of the Lord. She could be found at anytime or any place extolling the virtues of the Lord, reciting scriptures and praying.

Suddenly on March 19, 2012, God called her home to begin her ministry in his Kingdom. It was the Lord's desire that Evelyn's work on earth was done. She had endured enough and should join him for her final rest. Let not your hearts be weary, find solace in the fact that Evelyn is in a better place happy with her God.

Evelyn leaves to mourn her passing six loving children, sons Rev. George V. Holloway (Bernice), Michael Holloway, Kenneth Holloway (Lorraine) and Steven Holloway; daughters, Christine Holloway and Earnestine Harvey (Kevin); one stepson, Daryl DeLoatch (Yolanda). She will be sorely missed by her fifteen grandchildren; six great grandchildren; her brothers, Moses B. Easter III (Janice) and Marvin Easter (Carole); sisters, Margurite Howard and Lenora McDaniel; and a host of loving nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.

She was also preceded in death by her sister, Jean Fletcher.
